Effective Communication Skills' on May 3, 2023. The session commenced with a mosaic of soft skills which are more than 100 in number. The focal point among all these sets of soft skills being 'Communication Skills' with the extent of use of body language was well taken up with demonstration of various hand gestures and body postures. Dr. Gopika also discussed the various inhibitions that impede the stage performance and shared various tricks and tips of how to do it better.

Design Thinking for Innovation and Decision Making' on May 9, 2023. The session commenced with the problem of a stuck truck under the bridge which a schoolboy was able to solve with his innovative thinking. The session which was based on case discussion had several key aspects such as being a right mix of sociology, psychology, divergent thinking and convergent thinking. There are various techniques to solve a problem such as either to amplify good, eliminate bad, explore opposites, questioning the assumptions among many more.

Assessment of Leadership Styles on May 16, 2023. The session commenced with the self-evaluation of the leadership styles. The scale of six leadership styles as Visionary, Democratic, Coaching, Affiliate, Pace-Setting and Commanding were deployed to assess. The NLP technique of 'Perceptual Positioning' was deployed to resolve oft-occurring conflicts that predominate every individual in today's modern world.

Learning outcome:

Overall, the session was found most insightful and useful by all the faculty members..
