ICC (INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE)

JAGANNATH INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT SCHOOL, KALKAJI

Sexual harassment is a serious concern in educational institutions, affecting students, faculty, and staff alike. To ensure a safe and conducive learning environment, colleges must establish robust mechanisms for preventing and addressing sexual harassment. One essential component of this approach is the formation of an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC).

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is established in JAGANNATH INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT SCHOOL, KALKAJI under the University Grants Commission (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students in Higher Education Institutions) Regulations, 2015.

The primary purpose of the Internal Complaints Committee is to provide a safe space for individuals to report incidents of sexual harassment and to ensure prompt and impartial investigation and redressal of complaints. The ICC plays a crucial role in upholding the college's commitment to fostering a culture of respect, equality, and dignity for all members of the college community.

Following are categorised as "Sexual Harassment"

" An unwanted conduct with sexual undertones if it occurs or which is persistent and which demeans, humiliates or creates a hostile and intimidating environment or is calculated to induce submission by actual or threatened adverse consequences and induces any one or more or all of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication), namely:

1. any unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature;
2. demand or request for sexual favors
3. making sexually colored remarks
4. physical contact and advances
5. showing pornography".

We commit ourselves to a zero-tolerance policy towards sexual harassment and reinforce our commitment to making our campus free from discrimination, harassment, retaliation or sexual assault at all levels. If a student, faculty member or non-faculty staff member faces any discomfort under the above-mentioned heads, he or she can directly approach the committee.

An aggrieved person is required to submit a written complaint to the ICC within three months from the date of the incident, and in case of a series of incidents within a period of three months from the date of the last incident. Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding Officer or any Member of the Internal Complaints Committee shall render all reasonable assistance to the person for making the complaint in writing. For the reasons accorded in the writing, the ICC could extend the time limit by a period not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the person from filing a complaint within the said period. Friends, relatives, colleagues, co-students, a psychologist, or any other associate of the victim may file the complaint in situations where the aggrieved person is unable to make a complaint on account of physical or mental incapacity or death.

The complainant may contact the committee members through the given e-mail ID or phone numbers.
