• Principles

This Code of Conduct has been formulated to provide a clear statement of the Institute's expectations of faculty and students in respect of academic matters and personal behavior.

Study at the Institute presents opportunities for interacting with other members of the Institute community. The Institute recognizes and values the diversity of faculty and student experiences and expectations, and is committed to treating them, both academically and personally, in a fair and transparent manner. In return, they are required to comply with the requirements set down in this Code of Conduct.

The Institute reaffirms its commitment to:

- high academic standards, intellectual rigor and a high quality education;
- intellectual freedom and social responsibility;
- recognition of the importance of ideas and the pursuit of critical and open inquiry;
- tolerance, honesty and respect as the hallmarks of relationships throughout the Institute community; and
- high standards of ethical behavior.

All faculty and students are required to be aware of and act consistently with these values.

- Ethics of the Education Profession in India.
- The faculty will value the worth and dignity of every person, the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, acquisition of knowledge, and the nurture of democratic citizenship. Essential to the achievement of these standards are the freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal opportunity for all.
- The faculty's primary professional concern will always be for the student and for the development of the student's potential. The faculty will therefore strive for professional growth and will seek to exercise the best professional judgment and integrity.

- Aware of the importance of maintaining the respect and confidence of one's colleagues, of students, of parents, and of other members of the community, the faculty will strive to achieve and sustain the highest degree of ethical conduct.

• Principles of Professional Conduct For Senior Management

The Senior Management of the institute comprising Director, Dean and HODs are required to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty, ethical and legal conduct, when acting on behalf of the Institute's or in connection with the Institute's operations or at social events.

An honest conduct is considered as such when a conduct is free from fraud or deception. We consider ethical conduct to be conduct conforming to the accepted professional standards of conduct and include ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interests between personal and professional relationships. The Senior Management shall

- Act honestly, fairly, ethically, with integrity and loyalty and conduct themselves in a professional, & courteous and respectful manner.
- Act in the best interests of the Institute and in a manner to enhance and maintain the reputation of the Institute and fulfil their fiduciary duties to the stakeholders of the Institute.
- Act in good faith, with responsibility, due care, competence, diligence and independence;
- Avoid any activity or association that creates or appears to create a conflict between the personal interests and the Institute's business interests.
- Decline to work for or receive payments for services from any competitor, customer, distributor or supplier of the Institute without approval of the Chairman/Board.

- Avoid as a general rule conducting institute business with a relative or with an entity in which a relative is associated in any significant role. In case of conflicts, disclosure shall be made to the Chairman/Board
- Avoid accepting lavish gifts or gratuities or any offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization to pay any money, or anything of value that could be interpreted to adversely affect business decisions or likely to compromise personal or professional integrity.

- Code of Conduct for Faculty Members

The following disciplinary rules shall constitute the Principles of Professional Conduct for the faculty members:

a) Obligation to the student requires that the faculty:

- Shall make reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions harmful to learning and/or to the student's mental and/or physical health and/or safety.
- Shall not unreasonably restrain a student from independent action in pursuit of learning.

Report on " HUG IT OUT"

Event Category: NSS

Topic: HUG IT OUT

Date: 11 September 2023

Faculty Coordinator: Dr. Preeti Singh & Mr. Kartik Dayal

Number of Student Volunteers: 17

Objective

1. To raise awareness about Suicide Prevention Day through a unique and impactful approach—volunteers offering free hugs to strangers.
2. To break the stigma surrounding mental health issues and promote a sense of community support by giving hope to someone going through rough times.

Report:

Prayaas- The NSS and Rotaract Club of JIMS Kalkaji organized a "Hug It Out" event which successfully took place on World Suicide Prevention Day. The event aimed to create awareness about suicide prevention and mental health issues by offering free hugs to strangers and initiating conversations around this critical topic. Through a combination of engaging activities, heartfelt interactions, and emotional support, the event effectively conveyed its message of hope, solidarity, and the importance of mental well-being.

Learning Outcome:

1. Through the power of hugs and open conversations, the event reduced stigma and encouraged individuals to seek help when needed.
2. The connections made through HUG IT OUT serve as a reminder of the strength of our community and the importance of mental health awareness.
